

Travel Information

The Atlanta CSEC Center is located in an office complex five minutes south of the Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport. Due to its location, it is not pedestrian friendly, and there are no sidewalks or street lights between the center and nearby hotels.

There are no mass transit options available. However, there are hotel shuttles and taxis available for return to the hotels or to the airport.

Atlanta is a large metropolitan area. As with any large city, one should take the normal precautions when visiting. The following link provides travel safety tips:

Travel and Transportation

By Air

Atlanta is served by Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, located approximately 9 miles southwest of the business district via the Southwest Expressway and I-85. You can take a taxi from the airport to the center. Taxis are readily available outside the terminals, and the taxi ride from the airport to the center takes approximately 10 minutes.

For up-to-the-minute information regarding airline arrival and departure as well as gate assignments, call (800) 897-1910 or visit the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport website at www.atlanta-airport.com.

Public Transportation

The Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) provides bus and rail transportation between downtown Atlanta and the metropolitan area and does not provide transportation to the CSEC center. From the airport, MARTA trains take approximately 15 minutes to reach downtown Atlanta. They arrive and depart from the western end of the terminal complex every 8 minutes. The cost for a one-way bus or train trip is $2.00. You can purchase a BREEZE card at MARTA's stations and Ride Store inside Airport Station (located inside the western end of the airport's main terminal), from vending machines located in MARTA's rail stations, or at retail outlets in the Atlanta metropolitan area.
